

Girls on the Go FAQs

What is Girls on the Go?

- Girls on the Go is Girl Scouts of Maine's travel troop for Cadettes, Seniors, and Ambassadors.
- This unique troop offers girls leadership opportunities and cross-cultural understanding through international travel opportunities.

Who can join?

- Cadettes, Seniors, & Ambassadors
- A whole troop or an individual member of a troop
- Juliettes who are in 6th grade and up that want to travel!

Why join Girls on the Go?

- You'll get to travel with your sister Girl Scouts from across the state!
- Trips are led by experienced Girl Scout Leaders and insightful and culturally connected Tour Directors.
- You'll experience international travel in a safe, interactive, fun, and exciting environment with your Girl Scout sisters!

When should I join Girls on the Go?

- Joining anytime after 6th grade allows you to explore trip options and assist in choosing where we're going.
- You'll work on badges related to travel, learn and enhance skills needed for travel so that you feel prepared by the time you're ready to go on your trip.
- Long-distance trips cost more, joining in 6th grade ensures you'll have more than enough time to earn money towards your trip through special cookie booth sales and other money earning opportunities specifically for Girls on the Go!

When and where does Girls on the Go meet?

- Meetings are typically held on Sunday afternoons once per month on Zoom.

What are the upcoming trips?

- 2024 – Adventure in Peru
- 2025 – England, Ireland & Wales – Visit Pax Lodge
- 2026 – Incredible India – Visit Sangam
- Possible upcoming trips include visiting one or more of the World Centres; Costa Rica; London & Paris; or even Italy & Greece!

Want more information?

- Contact travel@gsmaine.org or give us a call at 888-922-4763